

An aerial photograph of a school campus. The image shows several large, multi-story school buildings with flat roofs and numerous windows. There are several parking lots filled with cars. To the left of the main building complex, there are two large, oval-shaped sports fields, one of which appears to be a baseball field. The campus is surrounded by green grass and some trees. The text "75th STUDENT" is overlaid in the top left, and "P. H. H. S." is overlaid on the right side of the image.

BIG RED MARCHING MACHINE AT NIAGRA FALLS.

THE BIG RED MARCHING MACHINE!

HIGH SPIRITS IN HARD TIMES

SPIRIT WEEK! Lisa Hopper (top left) in her cowboy outfit. One of our great typists shows her cowboy expression. Middle, left to right, Some people are always clowning around! Javel Chisholm in his suit on dress up day. Carie Marsh and Jinny Reautheax on tacky day. Bottom, left to right, three pumpkins that were entered in the contest. All pumpkins received a ribbon. Another one of those weird people.

CLASS OF '81 PULLS A FIRST.

Top left—Second place went to the Sophomore's float, Winnie the Pooh. The side of their float said, "Grin and Bear it", referring to the hard times we have faced as students. Third place went to the Freshmen's float, Dumbo. Dumbo shot water through his nose while saying, "Aim High." Bottom—Fourth place went to the Junior's, Cinderella and Prince Charming. The float had a dancing Cinderella. The castle provided a background.

Bottom Right . . Stacy Reynolds (Freshman) Homecoming Court Nominee

Glamore and Beauty reigns high on the 1980-81 Homecoming Court. Standing up: Roni Lloyd, Beth Powell, Susan Reschke, Penny Taylor, Anita Harrison. Sitting down: Stacy Reynolds, Jackie Genaw, Chris Atkins. Our homecoming queen, Gayle Strobbe, is standing in the middle of her court.

DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY.

The Homecoming Dance 1980. Top left—Kim Steiner smiles for the camera. Top right—Stacy Reynolds and her escort go up to the stage to await the announcing of our Homecoming Queen. Middle right—Scott Hayes is enjoying a seat. His poor aching feet. Bottom right—Anita Harrison and Jorgen Fosse, two Juniors arrive at the stage. Bottom left—Dee Purvis points to a cute guy. Wouldn't you know it. In background—Tom Fowler, last years Prime Minister, looks on.

Gayle Strobbe tries out her new position as Homecoming Queen. She is all smiles as she is surrounded by happy admirers. Bottom left, Brian Porter, Senior, this years prime minister, poses happily with Gayle. Gayle will return next year to crown the next Queen, who will it be?

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are very fortunate to have a super coach like Nell McLeod. Nell has spent many long hours helping them out. The J.V. squad also has three assistant coaches. They are Julie Anter, Laura Magbanua, and Katie McLeod. The captains this year are Kim Durham—11th grade, and Diane Schnieder—10th grade. This year there are not too many activities for the J.V. to participate in. They marched in the Blue Water Festival Parade. They took an aerobics class, and they entered competition on March 25, 1981.

At this time we would like to extend our sincere thanks to the entire squad. Their support and kind thoughts were great. They were and are always there to lift our spirits in times of duress. Again we think you're "SUPER GREAT!!!"

Love, The Varsity Squad

SPEND THE NIGHT DANCING. IT'S FUN!

Jean O'Brien and Kelly Lashbrook ham it up for the camera.

Mike Mullens, our own high school D.J. spins the top hits for the more spirited students at a dance.

Is the bunny hop still in, or are these underclassmen playing "follow the leader" in the halls again?

At the dance pictured here, a balloon can be traded for a kiss from your favorite person.

Don't be so enthused Mr. Burgess!

FALL SPORTS—EMPTY STANDS— DESOLATE YEAR

Why are the stadium stands so empty? Somehow the school year was not the same. Dropping enrollment, closing of schools, economic problems, etc., all led to a disappointing year for the students.

The class of '81' sincerely hopes this coming school year will be filled with all the excitement and joy of sports.

JUNIORS TAKE PART IN IT ALL

Kris Brown, Lisa Hooper, Roberta Sumner all show their spirit in different ways. Juniors always have BIG RED spirit.

EVENTS RATE HIGH

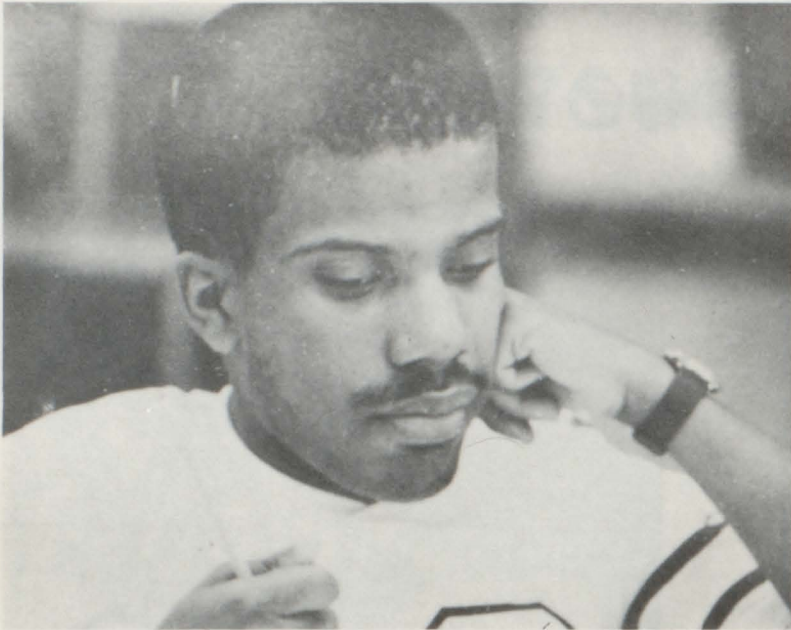

Sue Noffs was chosen for the junior's homecoming court nominee. Lisa Hooper has lots of spirit during the homecoming parade. Kris Brown is dressed up as an elf for the Christmas Assembly.

JUNIORS ENJOY LIFE

Andy Hinkley is always out to get revenge. Lisa Hooper takes a break to get her picture taken. Leann Kaufmann studies her music while she marches in the homecoming parade.

Kim Miller looks very involved in what he's doing, doesn't he?

Debbie Young gives the camera an evil eye. Sue Raschke gives us a big smile as she strolls down the hall.

CLASS OF "82"

JUNIORS HAVE CLASS!!!

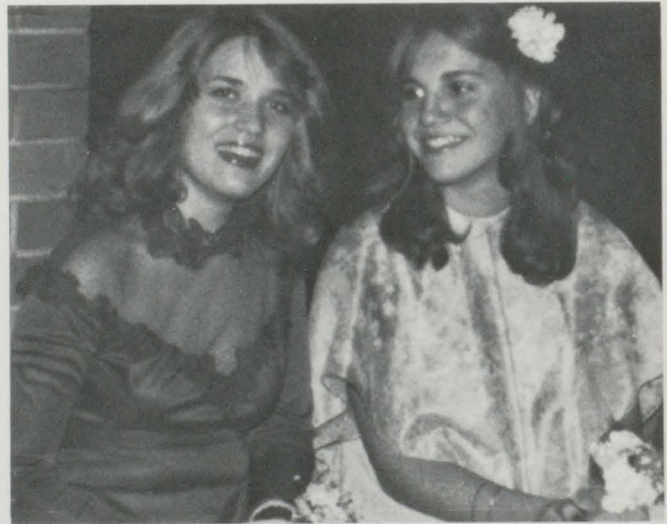

Sue Ballard and Jorgen Fosse are both dressed up for old fashion day. Jorgen is also an exchange student from Norway.

Sue Exley looks very enthusiastic as she sits at the student council sign-up desk.

Judy Polechonski, a junior, was chosen for a homecoming court nominee.

Sue Raschke and Anita Harrison wait on the benches for the exciting moment when they announce the homecoming queen.

Top Left, Jackie Genaw was one of the many girls nominated for sophomore court. Middle Left, Too much hard work makes for a sad Brenda Brookins. Middle Right, Kim Steiner shows the effects of attending school until 6:30 p.m. Bottom Left, Dawn Palmateer is worn out after a long day of school. Bottom Right, the photographer catches Cathy Zarling off guard.

HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT

Social Studies offers a variety of classes. Students wishing to broaden their knowledge of history can take U.S. History or World History. Civics is available to students' who want to learn more about their economy, Michigan history, and foreign countries. Some classes, such as "Psychology" and "I'm Ok", deal with the way people think and feel, and try to strengthen students' confidence in themselves. P.O.D. is a class that helps students' understand our governmental problems.

LEARN TO BE EFFECTIVE

Our P.H.H.S. Business Dept. offers many courses to the student body. Each course will last the entire 1980-81 school year. The following are both morning and afternoon electives: Marketing, Co-op, Typing I and 3, Retailing, Record Keeping, Office Clerical, Business Law, Office Related, Shorthand, Office Secretarial, Bookkeeping, Gen. Business, and Work Experience.

BASIS OF HOME LIVING

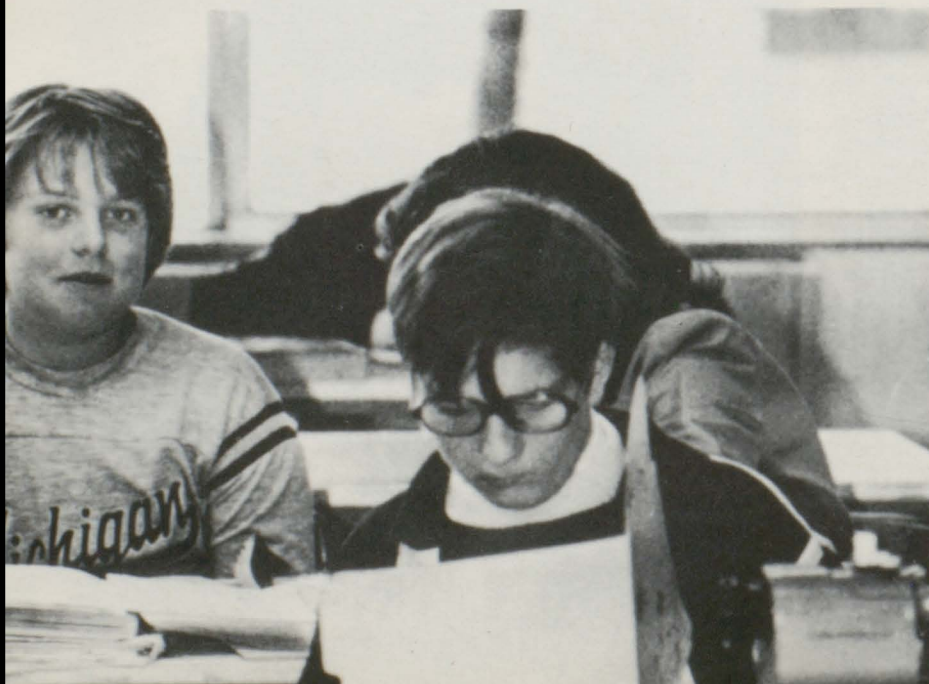

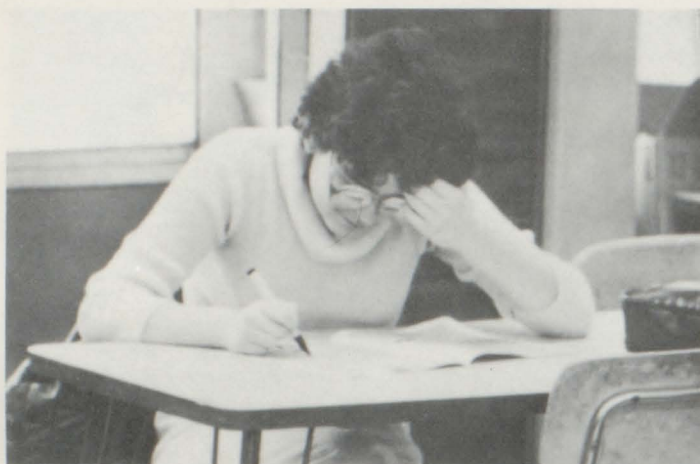

The Home Economics courses consist of many alternatives for both morning and afternoon sessions. All classes will last a full year, except Child Development and Home and Family Living. The other Home Economics classes offered are Food and Nutrition, and Clothing and Textiles.

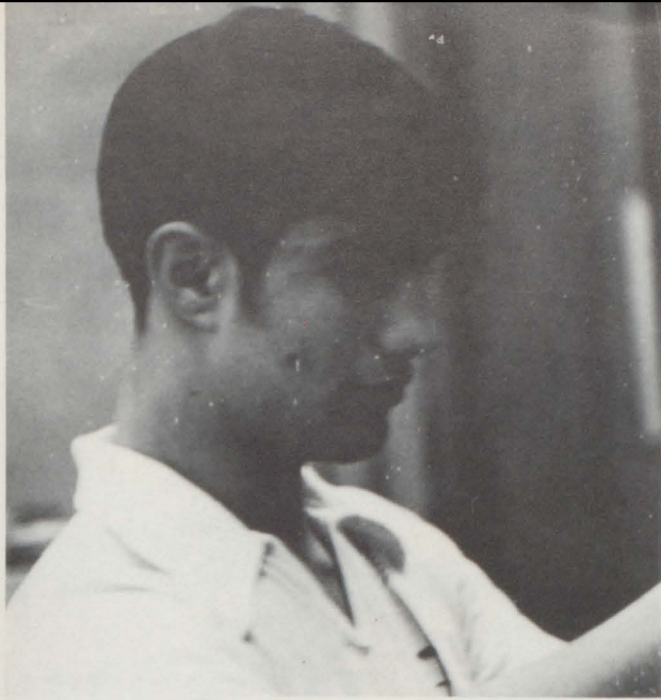

There are two teachers teaching in the Home Economics Department. They are Mrs. Browksi in the morning session and Mrs. Rutkowski in both the morning and afternoon session. Pictured above is Miss X, hands in face, needles in hand. Right is Brenda Roskey.

LEARNING ABOUT LITERATURE

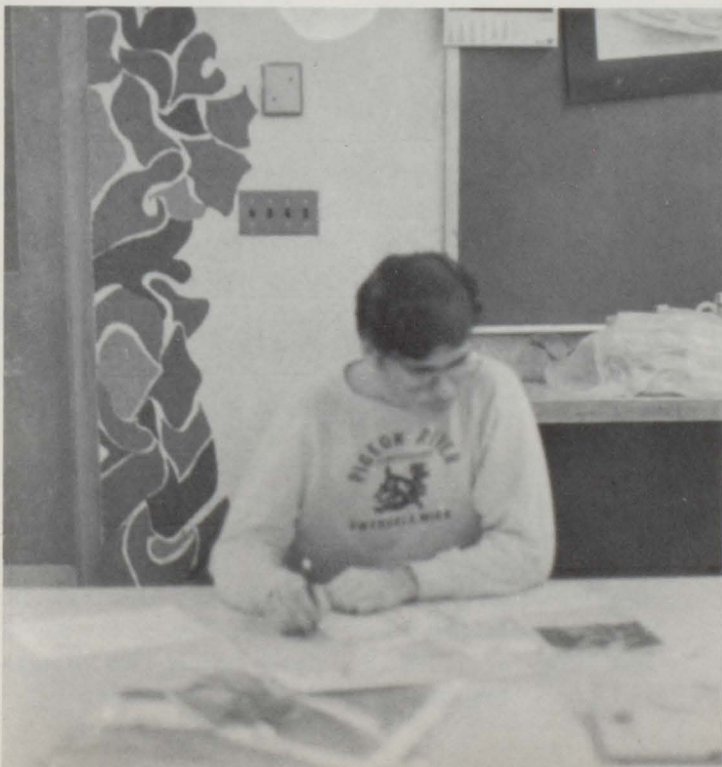

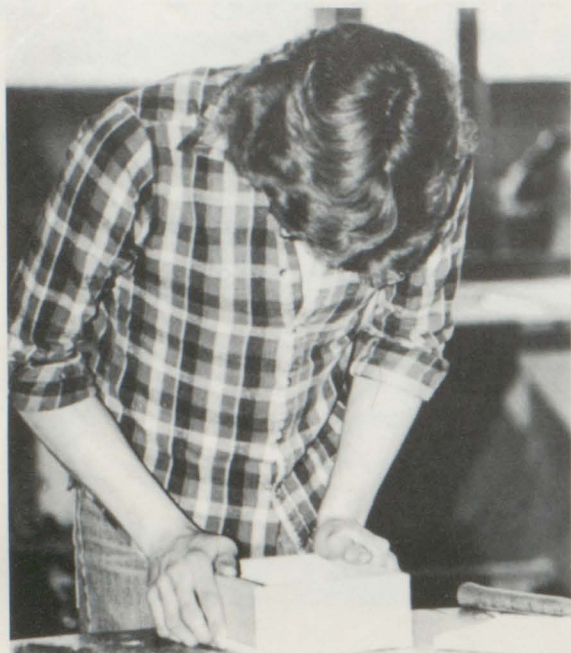

English offers to P.H. students a variety of literary creativity. Reading and English I and 3 give basic literary and grammar instruction. American Literature deals with American authors and their contributions to the literary world. Composition and Speed Reading enhance the quality in literary arts. Yearbook and Creative Writing offer a new approach in composition. Foreign language instructs not only the language of other lands but also their customs and beliefs. Pictured Top, left to right, Brenda Robinson and Lisa Gage. Center, left to right, Bill Purcell and Norma Kittridge. Bottom left, Bobbie Smith and Ken Fields.

Students, Students!!

LEARNING TO BUILD

ARROW BOOK STORE

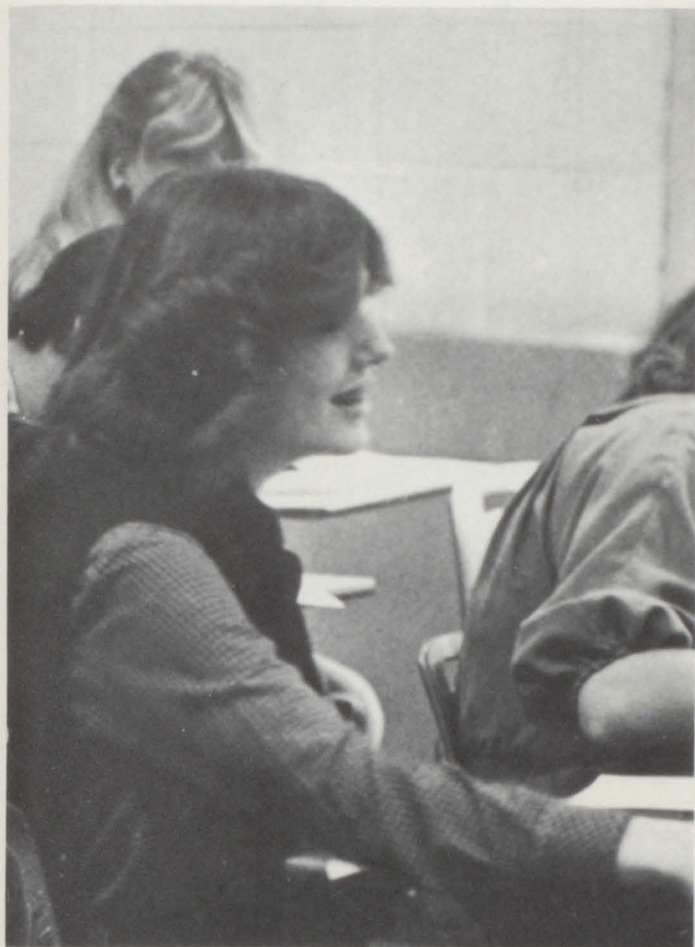

DISCOVERY TIME

In this advancing world, science has become a crucial part of life. At Port Huron High School the teachers try to touch the basics of the different types of science. For example, we are offered Discovery science and Earth science for basic sciences. For students who want a higher education in science, Biology, Advanced Biology, Chemistry, and Photo/Horticulture are offered. The highest form of science offered is Physics.

FIGURES AND FORMULAS

The math department at Port Huron High School offers a wide variety of classes from which to choose. If you are a wiz at figures, signs, formulas and algebraic terms, you could take Geometry I, Advanced math, Algebra 3, or Basic Algebra 3. Students meeting the daily mathematical requirements can take any of these two basic courses: Basic Algebra I or Algebra I. General math I, Remedial math, and General math 3, also are offered to students.

LEARNING TO BE CREATIVE

Mr. X

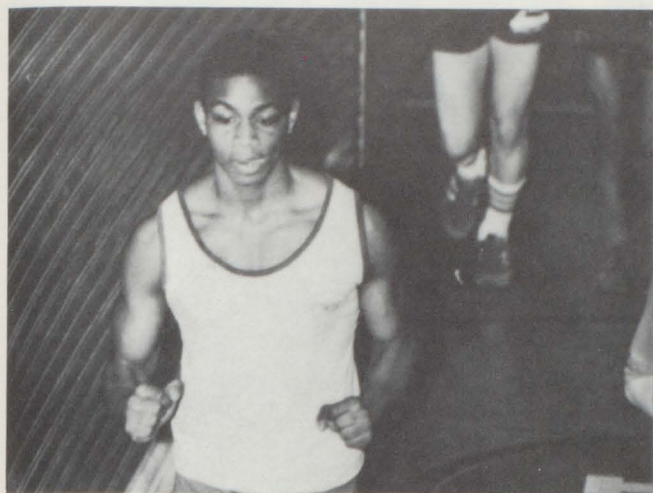

Mark McVey

Port Huron High School has many different types of art classes. Mrs. McPharlin teaches General Arts I and 3, along with Drawing and Painting in the morning session. In the afternoon session, Mrs. Carolyn Smith teaches General Arts I and 3, Ceramics, and Drawing and Painting. All these classes are an extra aid to further the talents of the artistically inclined students. Students learn about color coordination, technique, and the tools used in art.

Darrel (Ken) Russell

HEALTHY LEARNING

The P.E. course selection for 1980-81 included General Gym, Leadership Training, Gym Assitant, Weight Training, Advanced Weight Training, Mini-Sports, Silo-Muscle Training, and last but not least Archery Bowling. John Chapman (U.L.) and Roy Carroll (U.R.) demonstrate the art of running in gym classes. Julie Cole (M.L.) asks "What do I do next?" Anne Dartman (M.R.) checks the performance of gym students. Mrs. Bidle (L.L.) goes over the days schedule with her class.

The Big Red Marching Machine includes the Honors Band of 10th, 10th, 11th, and 12th graders. Other participating members include the Cheerleaders, Cherokettes, Display Flags, Thunderbirds, and the Tom-A-Hawks. The Marching Machine performs in some parades and other festivities throughout the year. The Big Red Marching Machine will be going to the "Big Apple" during spring break.

BIG REDS, BIG REDS, BIG REDS!!!

Big Reds are a special breed. They are just all-around nice people! Big Reds are known for their smiling faces. Right, Kevin Becker; Center, left to right, Mary Sue O'Brien, Theresa "FROG" Langolf, and Dee "THINGY" Purvis, Mr. Burgess; Bottom, left to right, Kim Steiner, Norma Kittridge, and Paula "TIC" Heddle.

POHI?? What's POHI? It means Physically or Otherwise Health Impaired. The POHI classroom at Port Huron High School has many helping professionals—an occupational therapist, speech therapist, physical therapist, and classroom aides. The students are involved in many vocational and activities of daily living skills. Money raising projects include—Engraving signs and name tags and manufacturing fish trollers for Biewer Fishing Company in Marysville.

This classroom is a highly individualized educational program.

PLACE TO STUDY

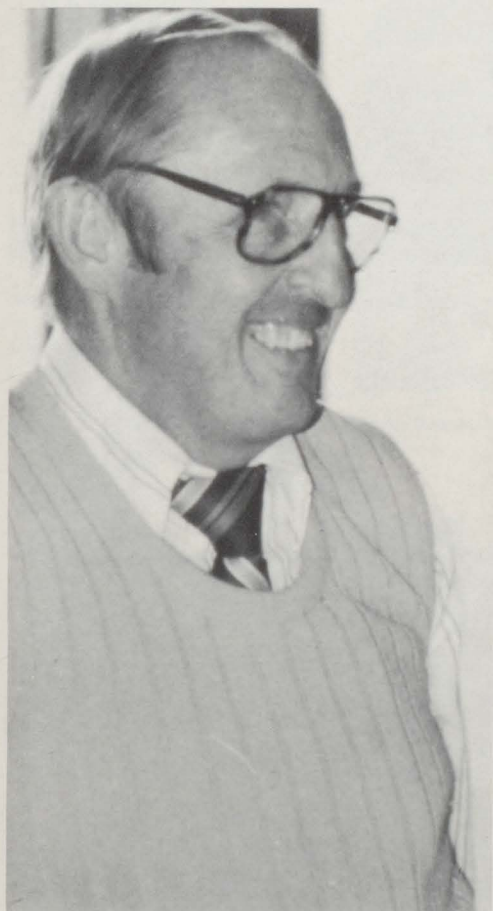

The media center has print and audio-visual materials for curriculum and recreational purposes. Student aides assist the media specialist Mrs. Anderson and the secretaries Mrs. Lovett and Mrs. Rolfe. The students that help in the media center in the morning are Brian Hedberg—2nd Hr., Lisa Burdick—4th Hr., and Rae Ann Harris—5th Hr. The afternoon aides are Annette Lynch—3d Hr. and Jim Sharpe—5th Hr. Students pictured reading are Katie McLeod, Holly Schroeder and Shelly Roberts.

PEOPLE WHO RUN P.H.H.S.

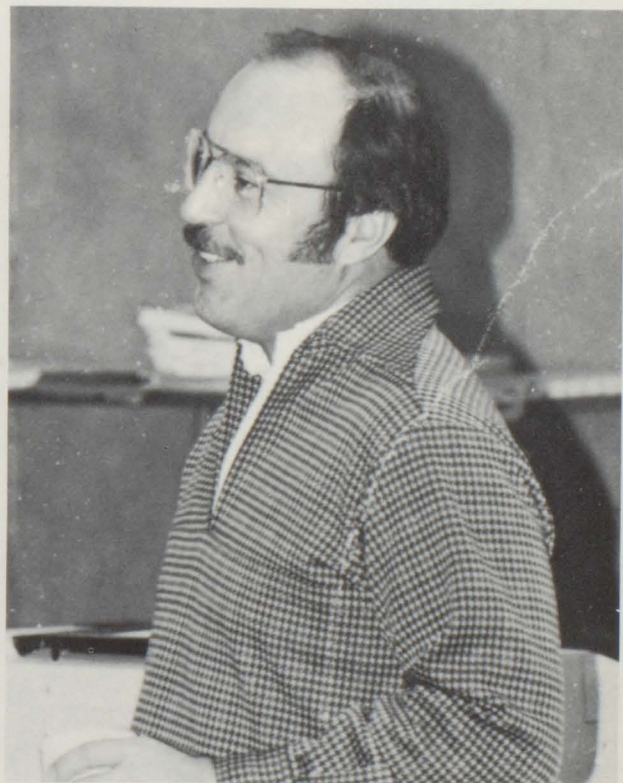

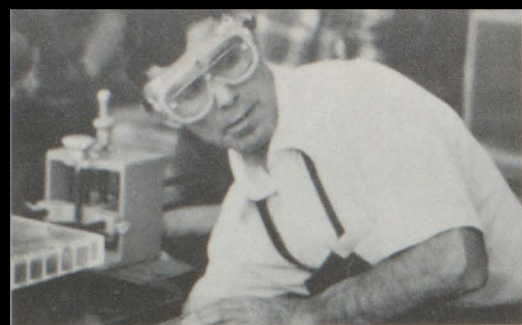

Mr. Chet Wydrzynski is Port Huron High's Principal. He has been the Big Red leader for the last twelve years. Mr. Wydrzynski does his best in keeping the school's spirit up during the trying times of the 1980-81 school year. Mr. Ufford to the right has been an assistant principal of Port Huron High's Big Reds for the past nine (9) years.

Mr. Haynes (above) is a Big Red assistant principal. He has been part of Port Huron High for the last five (5) years. His job consists of many different duties like school enrollment.

Mr. Lyszak (below) has been a Port Huron High Big Red assistant principal for the last five (5) years. He is known throughout the school. His job has many duties. One of his important duties is to get the report cards made out to the parents of the students.

The class of '81 would personally like to thank Mr. Wydrzyski for the last four years we have spent at P.H. His guidance and great concern have been appreciated by all.
THANK YOU, from the class of '81.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to thank the students, staff, administrators, and patrons who helped make this 1980-81 yearbook possible. Both A.M. and P.M. yearbook classes worked whole-heartedly to finish this yearbook. Our advisors this year, Mr. Friley and Mr. Reed, are the best. We thank them for their time and tremendous effort.
